Yemen

The flag of Yemen has three equal horizontal bands of red (top), white (middle), and black (bottom). The colors are similar to the flags of Egypt, Syria, and Iraq symbolizing Pan-Arabism. In the Yemeni flag, the color red represents the bloodshed of martyrs and unity, the white stands for a bright future, and the black is emblematic of the dark past.